Sally Cameron

WEDDING CELEBRANT

Do you offer packages, Sally?

Yes! Besides my standard fee for ceremonies, I also offer a full celebrancy and MC package (ceremony + reception) for $1800. An elopement package and for couples who just want to get the legals done is also available. Email for more information.

How long will the ceremony take?

Between 20-30 minutes is standard. If you're not up for much mushy stuff and really just wanna get to the kissing part it'll be more like 20 minutes. If you have ten cousins doing readings and five rituals to get through, then it might be more like 35 minutes.

Are you LGBTQI friendly?

Hell yes.

We want to elope – is that cool?

Sure is. Some of the most beautiful ceremonies I have experienced have been elopements and I am up for it, if you are down with it.

Can you help us with wedding vows and other wordy things?

Yes, indeed. I can send you some examples to choose excerpts from or write your script from scratch.

Can I bring my dog (cat/alpaca)?

Of course! I insist. Venue permitting, you may have the Ring Bearer of your dreams.

Do you have your own PA system and microphones?

Yes, with the ability to play background music if required.

Will you provide anything else?

I can bring a signing table and two chairs if your venue doesn't already have this sorted.

For a small fee, I can also offer a stunning arbour and up to 20 white Americana folding chairs.

Do we need to do a wedding rehearsal?

You don't have to, but I do recommend it.

Would you sing at the wedding too?

Can do!

Can we include a handfasting/sand mixing/wine & chocolate/jelly wrestling ritual?

Pals, you can have (almost) anything that floats your boat. Let's get creative and make this a day to remember!
